About KMC-EEC, Inc.

KMC-EEC Inc. is a 501(c)3 Tax-Exempt, Non-Profit educational and outreach organization that provides education and social improvement resources to underrepresented, socially, educationally, and/or economically disadvantaged youth residing in Strawberry Mansion and the surrounding Philadelphia areas. Using the "And Still I Rise" (ASIR) Youth Development Program as a catalyst for change, KMC provides youth from the ages of 8 to 18 with high quality and positive educational resources to improve their lives and inspire change. KMC aims to eliminate the inequalities of learning and academic disappointments by promoting self-sufficiency.

KMC Empowering Educational Corporation, Inc. enrolls students of any race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation. KMC-EEC, Inc. does not exclude, deny, or otherwise discriminate against any individual in receipt to all benefits, privileges, programs and activities normally made accessible to registered students. KMC-EEC, Inc. does in no way discriminate in the operational management of their scholastic policies, admission policies, incentive programs, or any other school administered programs.

AND STILL I RISE (ASIR)

ASIR is a before-school, after-school, weekend and summer youth development program that uses a multidisciplinary approach to education, problem solving, conflict resolution and social tolerance to encourage self-esteem, self-development and improvement of the family structure and community involvement. ASIR is designed to support youth ages 8 to 18 in achieving their academic goals and aspirations through the delivery of personalized academic programs, group counseling, retreats, training seminars, and fitness and nutrition programs. ASIR's program offerings provide students with educational resources and opportunities needed to rise above adversarial circumstances that threaten their ability to lead positive and productive lives.

OUR GOAL

ASIR's goal is to improve the problem of inequality in education in underprivileged communities by providing an innovative and creative year round academic and social resource program for students to develop skills necessary to become progressive members of society. Our program offerings consist of academic and social resources that are essential to students as they transition from elementary, middle, junior high, and high school through college or trade school and/or into the career of their choice.

ASIR's service offerings are designed to enhance students' lives; and ultimately have a profound impact on the lives of their family members and their communities.
